BANK ROBBER GETS FEDERAL PRISON TERM

United States Attorney Johnny Sutton announced today that, 25-year-old Jordan David Bebo was sentenced to 207 months in federal prison this morning in Austin.

On March 12, 2003, Bebo pled guilty to two counts of bank robbery, one count of using and carrying a firearm during a crime of violence, two counts of conspiracy to use and carry a firearm during a crime of violence and one count of unlawfully transporting explosives in interstate commerce. In his plea, Bebo admitted to robbing the San Antonio Federal Credit Union (6851 North Loop 1604) on March 12, 2002, and the Security State Bank and Trust in Dripping Springs, Texas, on May 1, 2002, while armed with an AR-15 semi-automatic assault rifle.

On October 4, 2002, Bebo was arrested by the Ohio State Highway Patrol after he was stopped for a traffic violation and a drug-sniffing canine alerted on his vehicle. At the time, Bebo was in possession of several loaded firearms, including the AR-15 assault rifle, a 12-gauge shotgun, and three .45 caliber pistols, along with a blasting cap he obtained in Texas.

Christopher Jay Brown, age 25, and Ray James McAllister, age 23—Bebo's accomplices and co-defendants—are currently serving federal prison sentences of 70 months and 220 months, respectively, for their roles in the bank robberies.

This case was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Hays County Sheriff's Office and the Ohio State Highway Patrol. Assistant United States Attorney Gerald Carruth prosecuted this case on behalf of the Government.
